The Election—Its Results

From the Willamette Farmer }

The blunders of political parties are well illustrated in the case of the man who stood over a few pounds of powder and touched it off with a match, and lost his eyesight. A friend who was commiserating over his blindness a short time afterward received in reply, "Oh, I can see better now than I could before" "How is that possible?" asked his sympathizing friend "I can see now what a consummate old fool I was in standing over that powder and touching it off"

The election has passed and as the smoke of the battle clears away it reveals the fact that the Lower House at least has changed in political complexion, with the Senate ... a tie The party in power in the last Legislature of the State can now reflect whether ... have been guilty of any "indiscretion" ... as the above

As the day of election has passed, we may refer to some "indiscretions" ... in the last Legislature and elsewhere, with ... accused of "meddling in politics"

The wickedest and most ... act of that body was the passage of the ... Act, by which the Governor was ... to name the particular ... in which all men should ... advertisements, and fixing the sum to be paid for such advertising It was ..., because the Legislature might as well give the Governor power to name ... butcher from whom all men should buy their meat, or the farmer from whom all men ... buy their flour and vegetables. The ... of this law will be the first act of the new Legislature

The Swamp Land act, while it will ... the State in the end, was not passed for poor men, but for rings. No safeguards were thrown around it to prevent one man or a few men getting all the swamp land in the State Much better benefit would have resulted if the law had prohibited the ... of more than a quarter or a half section by any one man and poor men and men of moderate means would have had an even show with mighty rings

The act giving away 90,000 ... of Agricultural College lands to one institution, without any consideration, will become more odious to the people as it grows older. The people of the State will not become reconciled until it is undone, and justice done the farming community

The act giving $200 000 for the construction of the canal locks, when the same might have been done for $125,000, was ... not a wise one as a party measure."

In a country where its very life depends on railroads it is certainly poor judgment in a political party opposing, or ... ing its approval of, liberal ... from the Government to aid in the ... such roads The people of Oregon ... have railroads, and they ... without subsidies

We think the people of the State ... are to be congratulated on the result at the polls last Monday The Legislature is ... equally divided between the two political parties Neither can afford to lose any ... tion, because on the acts of this ... depends the political complexion of its successor Neither party can allow its ... to be sold like sheep, because ... surely be rebuked at the polls. Neither ... can allow itself to be placed on the ... being opposed to the interests of the ... toral and laboring men of the State, and when a bill comes up to compel railroads to ... their tracks, in order to prevent the loss of human life and the killing of farmers' stock, the party opposing it must answer to the people at the next State election So, also, with other laws looking to equal ... of railroads with other property in the counties through which they run, taxing railroad lands the same as other wild lands in counties where situated, requiring a railroad company to answer a suit in the county where a debt is due, stock killed, or ... damage done etc

In a word, we think the result of ... a purification, and that the people who work and pay the taxes will be greatly benefited by the honesty that will be shown by both parties in the next Legislature

MONDAY MORNING JUNE 10 1872

Votes Not Taken

The Salem Mercury is indignant because the men employed on the locks in Clackamas county were not permitted to vote for county officers. It may thank the last Legislature for their exclusion. That paper however insists that the locks are not a "public work" but an "enterprise of a private corporation though assisted by the State" and hence the men employed there should not have been excluded, under the statute, from voting. It might be pertinent to inquire whether the locks are any less a "public work" than the railroads. These latter also are enterprises of private corporations, yet men at work on the railroads were everywhere excluded unless they had bona fide residence apart from their connection with the railroads.

The Mercury goes on to say that "the day once was when such glaring frauds (the exclusion of the votes of employes on the locks) could be investigated and corrected, even by an [illegible] body." It is evident, then, that that day was before the Democratic party [illegible] its last lease of power in this State. For that party has thrown out of the Legislature by wholesale the opposition members lawfully elected to that body, and has allowed no majority given by the people to stand in the way. Just before the recent election the Herald threatened that this should be done with respect to Multnomah county, in case the vote of this county were in the way. Our friends doubtless feel sore over their defeat. We hope to find them [illegible] amiable before long.

Democratic Estimate of Greeley's Strength

It is natural that the Democrats, before accepting Mr. Greeley as their candidate, should inquire what strength he has among Republicans. If he cannot bring a considerable dowry the nuptials had better not take place, "for," says the World, "no Democrat even [illegible] than as a matter of interest and not inclination." The World, therefore, proceeds to examine the question. First of all it says:

By so abating him we should stultify our selves as free traders, stultify ourselves as opponents of the paternal theory of government, stultify ourselves as the champions of State rights, stultify ourselves as antagonists of the Ku Klux law, the odious bayonet election law, martial law in the Southern States, and the whole series of subjugating measures which Mr. Greeley has championed, and the Democratic party has unanimously opposed, within the last two or three years.

The pretense that Greeley will bring "a considerable body of Republican followers" is next inquired into. The World don't believe he could do any such thing. It concedes that the colored vote will go solid for Grant. This it says on adequate authority, and further that "a good Democratic candidate would probably receive more white Southern votes than Mr. Greeley." To this the World adds:

In the next place, Mr. Greeley has no strong [illegible] as a Republican candidate in the North. He is popular, but it is not the kind of popularity that controls votes. We may be [illegible], but at any rate this seems to be the [illegible] has always been put upon him by his Republican associates. Mr. Greeley has [illegible] to be a candidate for [illegible], but the Republican party has seldom had sufficient trust in his popular strength to [illegible] Woodford as a candidate for Comptroller in 1869, when he was not [illegible] votes behind [illegible] Signal on the [illegible]

Mr. Greeley's running qualities are further [illegible] faction. The World [illegible] as follows:

The [illegible] of nominating Mr. Greeley (self-[illegible], dignity, and political consistency apart) [illegible] simply upon this simple consideration [illegible] more Republican votes will be gained than Democratic votes repelled. There are Democrats who will not vote for him in any event, not even [illegible] the Baltimore [illegible], if he should get it. The extracts which we print this morning from the [illegible] show that the Irish religious [illegible] will never be reconciled to him. A large [illegible] Democrats will never accept him. [illegible] important than all, multitudes of Democrats who prefer principles to expediency have already made up their minds to bolt the Baltimore [illegible] if the Convention nominates [illegible]. With our present data for forecasting the [illegible] we have no doubt that Mr. Greeley's [illegible] at Baltimore would drive away two [illegible] for every Republican that will follow Mr. Greeley [illegible] alliance.

When the Vancouver Register says that the [illegible] of the Herald exceed those of the palmiest days of Grasshopper Jim, it is near the [illegible] has rabid [illegible] further than in the Herald's editorials of the past few days. That paper is now [illegible] exclusively to the work of [illegible] Ben Holladay." It has [illegible] everything else. It promises to [illegible] enterprises and to drive him as a fugitive from the State. "His downfall and flight," it [illegible], "are only a question of time, and are much nearer at hand than is generally supposed." Now if this were any of our [illegible] we could suggest a way whereby [illegible] be induced to abandon his [illegible] and quit the war path. It required only five hundred dollars to bring it [illegible] on the locks question; and it may be that the "railroad king," rather than undergo the humiliation of an enforced and ignominious flight from Oregon, might think fit to [illegible] with his persecutor on similar terms. Perhaps terms even more favorable could be obtained. But come what will, it is [illegible] to know that the railroads which have been built can't be picked up and carried off. The Herald will probably drive Holladay out of the State, but when he packs his carpet-bag to leave he can't put his railroads in it.

Several of the leading newspapers that at first supported Mr. Greeley, are growing perceptibly [illegible] in their advocacy of his election. For example, the Cincinnati Commercial, in answer to a correspondent, confesses that it does not see the promised evidence of a "mighty [illegible] of the Republican party," and says that the Democracy appear to be much more disturbed than the Republicans by the nomination of Mr. Greeley. "If the Democracy," it adds, "are waiting to see a great Republican uprising for Mr. Greeley they will probably wait in vain. The Republicans do not propose to divide that the Democracy may march between their discordant wings to easy victory." The Springfield, Mass. Republican likewise thinks Mr. Greeley's prospects very poor. It says that Greeley Republicans are "lonely and lonesome" in the New England States.

Unhappy always about something, the Herald is now distressed by a fear that the three hundred thousand dollar subsidy for the west side railroad, authorized by the last Legislature, will be carried over the Governor's veto and that the city of Portland will be burdened with this debt. It may be necessary to inform our neighbor that the 20 miles of road which this subsidy was designated to aid is already built and has been in operation for some time. The use that once existed for such a subsidy has therefore been superseded. The new Legislature will not think of passing the bill over the veto. It is absurd to suppose that it will think of it.

Filled With Alarm

Evidently our Democratic brethren are in great fear [illegible] constructions [illegible] themselves [illegible] plague the inventors. We find the Herald saying:

Judging from an intimation thrown out in the [illegible] some days [illegible] bare party majority in each branch of the Legislature may result in their so shaping matters as to make it two thirds. This is precisely what we understand the OREGONIAN to mean, namely. That if they have a majority, they will unseat enough Democratic members to make the majority sufficient to [illegible] their measures over the Governor's veto.

Of course the OREGONIAN has said [illegible] which will bear such a construction [illegible] but the Republicans could do this very thing and cite the Democratic precedents of two sessions for it. Under Democratic manipulation a "bare party majority" in 1868 and again in 1870, was so increased as to give Democratic legislation full swing. This was notably the case in 1870. By this very simple operation the Locks Bill, the Litigant Act and other swindling measures were got through. They who did these things are now paying for them the penalty of defeat.

A Republican Legislature, we trust, will be governed by right and justice. Doubtless there will be strong temptation to retaliate for former wrongs. But nothing should be done in retaliation. One thing, indeed, is essential to justice, and that is the reseating of Senator Witham, of Benton county, who was outrageously driven from his seat at the last session. This act of justice, we trust, will be performed. New contests for seats if any arise, can be decided on their respective merits.

Republicans have not two thirds in either branch of the Assembly, and therefore can carry nothing over the Governor's veto. But we do not despair of finding in the Legislature fair minded Democrats who will co-operate with Republicans in annulling the worst measures of the last session. The Governor doubtless is so wedded to this profligate legislation that if he is able to prevent it he will not permit its repeal. But there are Democrats in both Houses who ought to see the propriety of repealing the Litigant Act, the Portland Police bill, etc. The people have spoken on these things, and wise men will not refuse to hear. The whole scope and object of this legislation is to benefit favored individuals at the expense of the public. It should not be permitted to stand a day beyond the time the Legislature can reach it.

Though we shall neither countenance nor counsel anything which looks like retaliation for past outrages in the matter of expelling members from the Legislature yet it is not without some satisfaction that we witness the apprehensions of the Democracy lest their own tactics may be turned against themselves.

There will now be a concerted howl by the Democratic press because of the extension of the Ku Klux act. This is natural. It is a way that party has. Nobody has been hurt by this act except the criminals who have been punished by it.

ELECTION RETURNS

The following further election returns have been received:

Grant

Partial returns indicate that the Democrats have carried this county by a small majority.

Union

A telegram received in Umatilla says that Hendershott is defeated by 16, and that the balance of the Democratic ticket is elected. A resident of Union county, who left Grand Ronde last Thursday, informs us that Burnett's majority in the county is very small, probably not to exceed 20.

Columbia.

The official returns from that county are as follows: Burnett 180, Wilson 135; Bellinger 178, Durham 134, Van Dusen 169, Cornelius 122. The entire Democratic ticket, with the exception of the Assessor, is elected.

Polk

SALEM, June 8.—The following are the majorities in Polk county on the official count: Wilson 16, Humphrey 2, R S Chrystal (R) Senator, 10; J C Allen (D) Representative 6, J H White (D) Representative, 17; R C Law (D) Representative, 17; James Latimer (D) Commissioner, 31; Jno Vernon (D) Commissioner, 10; David Holmes (D) Clerk 101; S T Burch (D) Sheriff 17; R M May (D) Treasurer, 31; H C Clammond (R) Assessor, 24; D Grubbs (R) School Supt 12; T L Butler (D) Surveyor 15; Dr J R Sites (D) Coroner, 17.

Coos, Curry and Douglas

OAKLAND, June 8.—Coos and Curry give Wilson about 60 majority. The Republican Representative is elected.

Curry county is Democratic with the exception of the Assessor.

Wasco

We have not yet been able to ascertain reliably how this county has gone, but Democrats claim the whole ticket. The Mountaineer of last Saturday, published five days after the election, does not say one word about the result in the county.

Lane.

The official count gives Wilson 7? majority.

OREGON

Wheat is selling at 75 cents a bushel at Albany. Oats 50 cents.

Joseph Hite, aged 7?, a citizen of Linn county, died on the 6th instant.

The increase of the vote in the State the past two years is about 6000.

The Lane County Teachers' Institute will meet in Eugene on the 25th inst.

From present appearances the fruit crop in Lane county will be above average.

The Dalles paper says that the Columbia river continued to rise last year until the 21st of June, after that time it gradually receded.

C M Lockwood of Oregon has been to Texas stocking some stage lines on routes upon which he has lately the contract for carrying the U. S. mails.

Two Japanese youths are being educated at Forest Grove University. They are apt scholars, learning quickly and will reflect credit upon the institution.

The Albany Fire Company, on the 4th instant, elected Joseph Webber Foreman; Wm Fichter First Assistant; A N Arnold Second Assistant; A F Wheeler Secretary; H Myers, Treasurer.

During an absence of the family the residence of Mr Jerry Lamson of Grand Round was entered and robbed of twenty dollars last Monday, which happened to be all the money in the house at the time.

A son of Judge Bonham lost three of his teeth on Friday last whilst playing base ball on the picnic grounds near Salem. He undertook to catch the ball in his mouth but the hot liner was rather too much for him.

The Albany Democrat says: A number of the citizens of the Forks having become tired of the extortionate rates of ferriage charged by one Davis, whose ferry lies on the most convenient route from Marion to Scio, formed themselves into an association recently, and applied for a license to establish a ferry across the North Fork of the Santiam.

THE TERRITORIES

The new St Joseph's hospital at Vancouver is completed.

A half breed boy was shot and dangerously wounded at Olympia on Thursday last by a white boy.

The question of the establishment of a daily mail between Walla Walla and Lewiston is being agitated.

Major [illegible] of the [illegible] Arizona, [illegible] the Mexican boundary.

The rush of travel to Utah is still increasing, the greatest rush being from the Eastern States. Sometimes there are hundreds of arrivals on one train.

A great deal of public land is now being preempted at the Land Office in this place. Most of the locations have been made in Cowlitz county. So says the Vancouver Register.

Mormon home missionaries are holding protracted meetings in the different parts of the Territory of Utah. Elder Musser, who proposed to burn Salt Lake, etc., is a prominent preacher in the movement.

The Vancouver Register says the crops in Clarke county were never more promising than they are this season. There will be an enormous yield unless the high water in the Columbia should destroy the crop in the bottom.

Robert H Milroy of Indiana is the new Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Washington Territory. We obtain this information from a Washington paper. Our friends at Olympia may now rest easy, for it is Milroy, not McElroy.

Michael Shea of Vancouver has the contract of carrying the U. S. mails between Umatilla and Thorp's station, in the Yakima valley. The distance is 170 miles and trips are to be made once a week for a compensation of $1,500 per annum.

The Helena (Montana) Gazette of May 2?th says: On Sunday two men named George Owen and James Banks, were camped in the mountains six or seven miles south of the Crow Agency when one of them was killed by the Indians, who also drove off their horses.

During the year 1871 the receipts of Seattle coal at San Francisco amounted to 4,448 tons. So far in the present year the company has sent to that market about 4,000 tons and by the close of the twelve months ending December 31, 1872 it is anticipated their shipments will reach fully 10,000 tons.

The line of the Northern Pacific Railroad as it is now located, passes up the west side of the Columbia river leaving a mile or two between it and the river at Wallula. It crosses the Columbia some three miles above the mouth of Snake river and thence in a southeastern direction through the Palouse country to the Lake. Parties just over from Yakima say the surveyors are now setting the grade stakes.

A school for girls under the auspices of the Episcopal Church will soon be opened at Vancouver. The Register says it is also expected that a good school house will soon be erected on the block of ground belonging to the Church in the southwestern portion of town, as $6,000 has already been secured for that purpose. We are also informed that Bishop Morris is offered $10,000 for the purpose of building a school house for boys in the Territory.

The Lewiston Signal says: Both Snake and Clearwater rivers are rising rapidly at this place, and unless the weather changes in a day or so, we may expect to see the water as high as in 6?. Large quantities of drift wood can be seen going down both rivers, a large portion of which can be caught easily in the eddies along the shore, and be a saving of many dollars and cents next winter. The Celestial portion of our community are busily engaged in catching drift, which will be a blessing to their near neighbors.

CITY.

ALARM OF FIRE —On last Saturday evening as the procession of Republicans were marching up Front street on the way to the Court House an incident occurred which came near resulting fatally A large fiery horse attached to a buggy in which were seated a man his wife and child became frightened at the music and commenced to back and plunge forward in a manner which threatened to overturn the vehicle. The driver foolishly began to whip he and his wife served to render it more untractable. Several ladies in the vicinity of the buggy ran out to the woman came near being thrown out. Mr. R. Holman and several others in the procession perceiving the imminent peril of the lady and child rushed out and bodily held the horse until they could be helped out by which means their lives were no doubt saved.

VERIGATED SALES —Some an enterprising owner of a fishing smack down the river has purchased the canvas on which is painted in large letters the names of the Republican candidates who were placed in nomination and elected two years ago for the various county offices in Multnomah. Although the cloth has seen much service, and has the wear and tear of sun storm wind and rain, yet the colors remain fast, and can be read almost as readily as when the banner was first flung to the breeze in front of the old head quarters opposite the Russ House. In conspicuous letters traced with blue paint are the words "Liberty Peace and Justice, followed by the names of the officers. It would be safe to wager, that with such a motto constantly before the eyes the proprietor of the craft did not vote for "Dolly Varden" ticket. There remains no way to get even but for some benevolent person to make Joe Teal a present of that rag which hung on Morrison street a few days prior to the adoption with the names of the "People's candidates" attached. Joe will need a bit to wind to the elbows in sailing up Salt river in that craft.

FUNERAL.—Accompanied by Messrs De Prans and Neffield Miss Anna Mehlig went up to Salem yesterday. She will hold a grand concert at Reed's Opera House this evening assisted by artists on Tuesday evening in conjunction with all the leading and available musical talent of the city, she will give a grand entertainment at Masonic Hall. This concert will be given under the auspices of the Ladies Relief Society, and the proceeds donated to The Home. Miss Mehlig will take her departure from this city on next Saturday, all the musicians of the city propose to unite and tender her a grand complimentary farewell benefit on Friday evening.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO —The steamer Ajax which sailed for San Francisco Saturday evening took among the following passengers Mrs Koshland Mrs Hobson, Mrs J R Farrish Miss Dyer Wm J S Ackerman, J C Ninkelen Mrs M F W Ehs, D Kohn, R Harrison Miss P A J Parsons Leon Vial, H F Thayer, W family, D Gunnet, J B Lewis B J W Timon, M A Malarkey, Isaac Frost family, S Frank, Mrs Allen and family, S M and sixteen in the steerage.

FIRE MEETING —List every member of the committee appointed to take the very necessary steps and make the arrangements to celebrate the coming Fourth of July, recollect the meeting of the committee at the Armory this evening. The names of such committee will be found in the issue of Friday morning. Time is precious. It is to be hoped that there will be no wavering in this important matter. Everything will depend upon the action of the several committees.

IMPROVED —The thriving town of Cornelius shows it not more than a year old now contains four stores, thirty dwelling houses, two restaurants, a fine hotel under the management of Mr Hills, one blacksmith shop one livery stable one saloon, one lumber yard, and a German gardener the property of Mr. F Stadler. The Rail Road Company is having a fine picnic ground fitted up adjacent to the village, which will cost the neighborhood of $500.

THE THEATRE —Manager Waldron will furnish a feast of amusement this evening for a select audience. The pieces offered the public will be the four act drama entitled "The Wind and the Whirl" with "Betsy Baker" between which will be an interlude a song by Miss Finley, and a ballad by Mrs Robert Fulton.

TROTTING RACE.—The following is the result of the trotting race which came off on last Saturday afternoon over the Riverside Course L B Ross named b g Maynard, 1 1 J J Wilson named br g Blackbird 2 2 B B Arthur, named ch g Mack, 1 1 Time 2 52½ 2 50.

FOR THE DALLES —Hon J F Caples goes to The Dalles to-day to attend the session of the Circuit Court for Wasco county, which will come there the present week. Mr Caples will appear as counsel for the defendant in the case of State vs. J C Emrick, charged with murder.

ARRIVED —We learn the little steamer Cora which has been announced would ply the opposition line between Portland and Vancouver after the 1st inst, has been subsidized by the Oregon Steamboat Company for another year and probably not be any opposition now.

ORDERED TO MONTANA —Four companies of the 21st Infantry, now serving in the Department of the Columbia, are ordered to Montana, to protect the Northern Pacific railroad. They will be replaced within 30 or 50 days by two companies from the Department of California.

NEW DEALER —We understand that M Gray, the celebrated music dealer on the Pacific coast who has a branch store in this city under the management of Mr George L De Prans, is on his way to this city overland from San Francisco and will arrive in a few days.

DRUNK —A drunken man who was boister ous and disorderly yesterday was arrested and put in jail. On his person was found $60 in money and a good watch. He was relieved of them by the police, making the arrest until he returns to a sober condition of mind.

WHAT HE SAYS —The Herald pronounces the recent ratification in this city on last Saturday evening "a fizzle." Will that paper also say there was a small attendance at the plaza? If so it will be in accordance with its usual regard for truth.

AT VANCOUVER —The Sabbath School connected with the St David's Church East Portland left this city on last Saturday morning for Vancouver. A very pleasant time was experienced. The boat returned about 7 o'clock that evening.

RIVER —The river at this place still continues to rise, with no prospect of an abatement. The water of the Columbia is rapidly rising. At Lewiston the water is over twenty one feet above the low water mark on the Government gauge.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Circuit Court for Multnomah County will convene this morning at nine o'clock, Judge Upton presiding. Jurors should be on hand at the opening of the Court. Business for neatness may be thus avoided.

FREIGHT.—Quantities of freight as follows were brought down on the train 6 406 lbs made butter, 380 chickens 10 100 lbs linseed 2 291 lbs wool 3 945 lbs eggs 6 car loads of lumber.

MUSICAL The choir of Trinity Church will give, on Tuesday evening, a strawberry feast at the skating rink. The proceeds are to be applied toward the purchase of a new Church organ.

ADMITTED —In the U S District Court which will convene this morning, will be rendered the decision on the application of the motion for a new trial in the case of M S Hart, convicted of forgery.

OPPOSITION —The report is again being circulated that the Annie Stewart will be placed on the Portland line down the river in a few days.

Y. M. C. A —There will be a meeting of the Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association at their rooms.

THE GRAND RATIFICATION

Pursuant to liberal announcement the Republicans of this city and county in conjunction with a large number of invited persons from various portions of the State united in a grand ratification over the late signal victory achieved over the Democracy on last Saturday evening.

About 7 o'clock the procession commenced to form under the direction of Grand Marshal Thos G Young assisted by his aids on Stark street with the right resting on First. First came the prominent citizens of the city and country and many from abroad seated in carriages, headed by the East Portland Band. Next the Aurora Band followed by an immense number of citizens on foot. The procession was brought up by Cordes Brass Band followed by all the colored citizens of the city. The procession was one of the largest and most imposing we have yet witnessed in Portland. After parading through the principal streets the process on wended its way to the Court House Plaza where an immense concourse of ladies and gentlemen had collected. The streets and sidewalks throughout the line of march was densely thronged with the fashion beauty and intelligence of the city. At the plaza the entire area of the block was a dense mass of moving humanity while the steps in front of the Court House, and every available corner of the streets stoops and balconies were literally swarming with people of every stage age and condition.

The Portland Light Battery manned the two pieces of artillery which at intervals belched forth in thunder tones the pean of victory. Arriving at the grounds, the procession halted, and filed in the plaza and gathered around the speakers stand which is situated about the center of the block. In every direction for many yards the crowd and jam was very great. Four huge bonfires blazed along Fourth street and illuminated the scene for several blocks. Several patriotic airs were played by the band and was introduced by the Hon John H Mitchell. Mr Williams spoke for nearly an hour in his usual able logical and eloquent manner. He congratulated the Republican party in Oregon on the late overwhelming victory and spoke in glowing terms of the great future of the State which the present and prospective railroad enterprises of the country seemed to promise. He spoke of the national nominations recently made by the Republican Convention at Philadelphia, and regarded the re-endorsement of President Grant as of the most vital importance both to the prosperity of the Government the advancement of all the material interests of the Union and the perpetuity of the Republican party. He reviewed the military achievements of Gen Grant the great service rendered by him to the nation in her darkest hours of adversity and the wise impartial and safe manner he had administered the Government in all its branches since his elevation to the Chief Magistracy and he predicted in conclusion that the renomination of Grant by the Convention would be ratified by the nation in a most decisive signal and sweeping victory on the 5th of November next. In that contest when State after State should wheel into line in the grand national procession he hoped that Oregon young, buoyant and promising, would come to the front with a majority of three thousand.

Throughout the speech Mr Williams was frequently applauded, and the vast concourse of ladies and gentlemen were held almost spell bound.

At the conclusion of his speech, the Hon J H Mitchell was introduced by Judge Williams. Mr Mitchell addressed the audience for about fifteen minutes in his most pleasing and eloquent style and was often greeted with a storm of applause.

Hon Rufus Mallory one of the Representatives from Marion county was next brought forward and delivered a short concise and very telling speech.

Speeches were also made by Judge Kelsay of Benton county Hon W D Hare President of Elector and Hon J F Caples, Representative elect from Multnomah county.

The ratification was one of the largest and most successful which has ever been given in the State.

PARTIES —That pleasant portion of the year has arrived when the weary quill driver the lawyer clerk merchant banker minister, teacher and man of business, loves to lay aside the dull plodding routine of every day avocation and brush the accumulations of dust and cobwebs from the over taxed brain, by some healthful recreation. Portlanders gene ally manage to spare from their business at this season, at least a week, to take a 'tramp' in the mountains to stalk deer, bear and elk, or to angle in our many beautiful mountain streams for the delicacies which sport in abundance. Some again love to wander down by the "sounding sea" and have a glimpse of Old Neptune, and sniff some of his salt and invigorating zephyrs. There are a number of places where all can gratify their various tastes. Mind and body both require rest and recreation during the languid period of warm weather. Everybody ought to take a trip. We hear of several such parties already being talked of.

SUDDEN DEATH —A rather noted character among the lowest order of the nymph du pave named Susan Ellsworth, died suddenly at her residence on Saturday evening on Second street. This unfortunate female is said to have occupied at one time in her life an exalted social position, and was cultivated and accomplished, but, alas upon her brow had long been stamped that terrible word, 'Prostitute!' Once the pride of respectable parentage her first wrong step was the small beginning of the same old story over again which has been the only life history of thousands. Educated and accomplished in mind and manners, she might have proved an ornament to the best society. But the evil hour came, and she fell and having wasted a young life in disgrace and infamy this miserable woman died the melancholy death of a wretched outcast from the palace of society. Such are some of the sad phases of life.

SEVERE ACCIDENT —We learn that Mr J C Flowerdew of the firm of Hewett Flowerdew & Co met with a very severe accident while driving out last Saturday evening. He had driven out some distance along the canyon road and started to turn round to come back to the city. In doing this his vehicle coll ded with a wagon and was instantly capsized. Mr Flowerdew was thrown out and one of his legs so badly hurt that it is thought amputation will be necessary. Dr Dickinson is in attendance.

STEAMERS —The steamer John L Stevens is announced to sail from this port on the 14 inst for San Francisco.

Steamer California will sail from this port for Victoria and Sound ports on the 25th inst.

The propeller Geo S Wright will sail for San Juan, Nanaimo and Sitka, July 1st.

NOT SAILED —The steamer Idaho has not sailed as we go to press on account of the non arrival of the steamer Caliphon is now overdue at this port. As soon as the Caliphon arrives the Idaho will sail for Victoria and the Sound and the former vessel will proceed to Sitka. She has on board a company of soldiers for this port at that place.

WEBFOOT—ALMS —The bark Webfoot sailed from San Francisco for this port on last Saturday.

The bark H W Almy is considerably overdue at this port. She is probably in the river at present.

RETURNED —A number of prominent men throughout the State who came down to attend the grand Republican ratification have returned home again.

The change has been made by Quong the well known dealer in Fish Game and Poultry who opened this stand as a branch establishment, where at all times fish of every kind in his particular line can be found. At the old stand Washington street between First and Second—the usual supply of Fish, Game and Poultry can be had at any time. Orders left at either place will be promptly filled.

ANNEXATION IN THE PACIFIC —It appears from our Washington dispatches that the President has made some sort of treaty or bargain with the chief of Tutuila one of the Navigator Islands in the South Pacific and in about fourteen degrees south latitude for a port naval station and naval depot. This is on the route from our Pacific coast to Australia and New Zealand. There are thousands of beautiful and productive islands both south and north of the Equator in the Pacific like this of the Navigator group and when our people have once got a good foothold among them we shall find that Sea Island cotton sugar coffee and other semi tropical and tropical products will be cultivated there extensively. This acquisition small though it may be will lead to important results. N Y Herald.

INFORMATION —When be purchasers are at a loss it certainly pays to spend time and take a little trouble to find the best place to buy. It is both an expense and in the end an annoying practice to buy at the first place one comes to. But the rower can save much time and perhaps when he finds that the Kohler & Co (Oriental street soft Clothing Furnishing Goods store) is what they represent them to be. The reader may save minutes at this house and receive full satisfaction.

THE UMATILLA HOUSE at The Dalles is now completed and finished in every respect luxuriously. The rooms are the most cheerful and pleasant. The dining hall is very fine. The rooms are all newly furnished. The beds are lively and the rooms are much larger than the old ones. The ceilings are higher which adds greatly to the comfort of the rooms. The table is kept in style to correspond fully with the appointments.

The Electoral Vote

From the Sacramento Union

The papers are not yet done with the argument upon the proposition whether the electoral vote for President and Vice-President this year shall be based upon the existing representation in the Senate and House, or upon that allowed by the new apportionment law. [illegible] the former, the Electoral College will be composed of [illegible] the latter of 366 members. [illegible] require only 159 votes [illegible] to elect a President [illegible] on the subject [illegible] the election [illegible] on the existing representation. But naturally precedents will be called for. The last forty years of our history have furnished just two presidential elections which may fairly be taken as precedents governing the election of this year. The first of these [illegible] 1832, two years after the census of 1830, and after the passage of a new apportionment [illegible] for members of Congress. By reference to the political statistics of that year we find that the number of presidential electors corresponds with total number of Senators and Representatives elected under the apportionment taken prior to the census of 1830. The next precedent is that of 1852, two years after the census of 1850. And we find that in this case also the number of electors [illegible] ly corresponds with the number of Senators and Representatives elected under the apportionment law enacted before the census was taken, only that there is an allowance made for the increased number in each House of [illegible] on account of the admission of California as a State in 1850.

These two precedents ought to settle the matter and silence argument. It is perfectly clear that the Electoral College will be by the law, the Constitution and precedents of the Government composed of just as many electors from each State as the States respectively were, before the late apportionment law, entitled to Senators and Representatives in Congress, that is to say, 317; and that the new distribution of representation will not affect the Presidential election till the year 1876. Whatever Presidential candidate receives 159 electoral votes will be the President elect.

A R[illegible]

It is very apparent that the nomination of Greeley by the Cincinnati Convention was a [illegible] appointment to many who were most active in getting up that convention. The Nation, one of the ablest advocates of Free Trade, favored the movement at first and without doubt would have given Adams or Trumbull its active support. Now, however, it calls for action on the part of the Liberal Republicans to remedy the mistake of the Cincinnati Convention, and hopes that some man may be nominated who will receive the support of honest and conscientious men. In speaking of Greeley it says: "We doubt if a single prominent originator of the movement will appear on the stump for him, and we venture to affirm that there is not one of them who does not regard his nomination as a national misfortune, of which we have yet to see the worst fruits."

This widespread dissatisfaction among originators of the Cincinnati movement is ominous and augurs the defeat of Greeley even with the endorsement of the Baltimore Convention. In this connection the Nation says he will be supported if nothing better offers by the better class of Southern whites as a means of breaking up the existing party organization in the hopes of securing its support of the Federal Government against the the carpet baggers and by the old virulent and unreconstructed rebels, as a means of bringing the Government into contempt and ridicule. They look upon him as a ridicule. They look upon him as a ridiculous old fool and for that reason will do their best to install him in the white house as a bitter and revengeful joke. He will not receive the active support of many of those Republicans who are disposed to find fault with the present administration and he cannot be elected except by a thorough combination of the whole opposition to Grant.

"What news from the South," says the Tribune, "is [illegible] more cheer to the patriot than that General Beauregard, Dick Taylor and Hays stand on the Cincinnati [illegible] and all its candidates? There was a time when the Tribune's most conclusive argument against a Democratic measure or a Democratic politician was that the one or the other was acceptable to the leaders of the rebels. Now nothing can bring such cheer to the patriotic heart of Mr Greeley or of Fenton's professor of journalism, as to learn that rebels like Beauregard and Dick Taylor approve of a movement which the Tribune supports. The fact that the Union [illegible] of the South, the loyal colored men, the [illegible] of the Federal armies, and the voters who elected Abraham Lincoln are all opposed to Mr. Greeley in the present campaign, is a small matter of importance, in the estimation of the Tribune compared with the cheering news that Beauregard and Dick Taylor are ready to vote for their present friend and admirer.—Times

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, June 8, 1872

Gold in New York to-day, 114¼.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 86c buying; 88c selling.

The steamer Ajax left this morning for San Francisco, with passengers and the following quantities of freight: 840 half sacks of flour, 3,572 quarter do, 304 bales of wool, 500 sacks of wheat, 230 green and dry hides, 134 boxes of eggs, 125 kegs of dried apples, 39 cases of merchandise, 7 kegs of butter, 30 empty beer kegs, a total of 430 tons.

An extract concerning the wheat crops and prospective prices, which was published in this paper on Saturday, should have been attributed to the New York Bulletin instead of to the San Francisco Bulletin.

Advices received here state that Wheat of the new crop is being contracted for in California at $1 85 per cental. It is evident that the prospects for prices are not so good as they were last year. Freights are much higher and it is believed will continue so during the season. Bags also cost much more. All these charges will come out of the Wheat. It is yet too soon to form an accurate idea as to prices that will prevail here, but many think that Oregon farmers this year will not realize more than 60 to 65 cents per [illegible]. There may however be a change in the aspect of affairs. It is believed that the crop in [illegible] of the eastern States will not be a full one. Scarcity of tonnage to carry away the large crops of California and Oregon will be a very serious inconvenience.

In an article on Wool the New York Economist of the latest mail date says:

If [illegible] a little low, competition will carry prices high enough, but if they open too high the bulk of the clip will fall into the hands of local parties who may not be able to carry it in a tight market, and in such an event a break would sooner or later occur but would be injurious to the whole trade. There never was a time in the history of Wool and woolens when manufacturers had so much at stake as they have at present in sustaining the price of Wool, and hence if the farmers are wise they will sell them in preference [illegible] dealers and speculators.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.
